CONSTITUTION AND BY-LAWS OF THE FORT MOJAVE TRIBE

OF THE FORT MOJAVE RESERVATION OF ARIZONA, NEVADA, AND CALIFORNIA

Approved May 6, 1957

PREAMBLE

We, the Fort Mojave Tribe having tribal lands in Arizona, California, and Nevada, in order to establish a legal Tribal Council and better exercise the privileges and powers of self – government, in order to use and restore our ancient home in the Mojave Valley of the Colorado River, and to rehabilitate ourselves and fortune after being dislocated by the changed conditions resulting from the construction of Hoover Dam and by overflows and backwater from Parker Dam and Lake Havasu, and in general to improve our welfare, and to enjoy and maintain our rights and privileges as citizens under the Constitution and laws of the United States of America, do establish this Constitution and By – laws for the Indians of the Fort Mojave Indian Reservation.

ARTICLE I – – STATEMENT OF PURPOSE

In our relation to the United States Government, a relation similar to that which a town or a county has to state and federal government, our own internal affairs shall be managed, insofar as such management does not conflict with the laws of the United States, by a governing body which shall be known as the Fort Mojave Tribal Council.

ARTICLE II – – TERRITORY

The authority of the Fort Mojave Tribes shall extend to the following land areas: the so-called "Military Reserve" set aside by General Orders No. 19 of the War Department of August 4, 1870, containing approximately 5582 acres, more or less, and the so-called "Hay and Wood Reserve" also defined and said General Orders, containing approximately 9114 acres, more or less, and the so-called "School Reserve" set aside by Executive Order of March 18, 1903, containing approximately 7000 acres, more or less, and those lands set aside pursuant to Executive Order of February 2, 1911, containing 17,315 acres, more or less, except the acreage subsequently sold to the Metropolitan Water District which became inundated after the construction of Parker Dam, and further the land totaling approximately 16 acres, more or less, comprising the Fort Mojave Indian Village, adjacent to the City of Needles, California, which land was purchased with our tribal funds, and finally to such other lands as the United States may acquire for the benefit of the Tribe or the Tribe may subsequently acquire for itself.

ARTICLE III – – MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 1. The membership of the Fort Mojave Tribe shall consist of:
