The jurisdiction of the community shall extend to all lands now comprised within the Maricopa (Ak-Chin) Indian Reservation and to such other lands may hereafter be acquired.
ARTICLE III – MEMBERSHIP

SECTION 1. The membership of the committee shall be determined as follows:

(a) All persons of Indian blood whose names appear on the official census rolls as of June 30, 1928; provided, that within five years after the adoption and approval of these Articles of Association, corrections may be made in said roll by the Community Council, subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior.

(b) After the approval of these Articles of Association by the Secretary of the Interior, all children of members wherever born shall be entitled to membership in the Community if they are at least one-fourth (1/4th) degree Indian blood.

(c) The Council shall have the power to enact ordinances, subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior, governing future membership, and the adoption of members of the Community.

ARTICLE IV – GOVERNING BODY

SECTION 1. The governing body of the Community shall be known as the Ak-Chin Indian Community Council and shall consist of a Chairman, Vice Chairman, and three Council members who shall be elected by the qualified voters of the Community. Three members of the Council shall constitute a quorum.

SECTION 2. The first election of Council members under these Articles of Association shall be held within 90 days following the adoption and approval of the Articles of Association.

In the first election the two candidates receiving the highest number of votes shall hold office for a period of three years. The next two candidates receiving the highest number of votes shall hold office for a period of two years. The candidate receiving the fifth highest number of votes shall hold office for a period of one year, thereafter; Council member shall serve for three years, one member to be elected at the end of the first year, two members to be elected at the end of the second, and two members at the end of the third year.

SECTION 3. The Council Chairman, and Vice Chairman, shall be elected from the Council membership by the qualified voters of the Community for a period of one year. The Chairman and Vice Chairman shall be elected immediately following the election of the Council members. Only Council members are eligible for these offices. The Chairman, or Vice Chairman, may be reelected for successive terms.

SECTION 4. The Council may choose the Secretary and Treasurer, from within, or without, the Council or the Community membership.

ARTICLE V – QUALIFICATION OF OFFICERS

SECTION 1. No person shall be elected or hold the office of Chairman, Vice Chairman, or Councilman unless he:

(1) Is a member of the Community.
(2) Has reached the age of 25 years, has been living on the reservation for at least one year preceding the election. Additional qualifications may be prescribed by ordinance enacted by the Council.

ARTICLE VI – ELECTIONS

SECTION 1. Any member of the Community 21 years of age, or over, shall be entitled to vote.

SECTION 2. The Council shall prescribe election regulations with respect to the dates thereof, polling places, election committees and their duties, absentee balloting, and any other requirements thereof.

ARTICLE VII – VACANCY

SECTION 1. The Council shall declare that a vacancy exists when any officer or member of the Council shall die, become insane, resign, or be removed from office for neglect of duty or gross misconduct, or permanently leaving the Community, or shall be found guilty of a felony or misdemeanor involving dishonesty in any Indian, County, State, or Federal Court.

SECTION 2. The Council by affirmative vote of three members may expel any member for neglect of duty, or gross misconduct in office, but, before any vote for expulsion is taken, such member shall be given a fair opportunity to answer any, or all, charges. The decision of the Council shall be final.

SECTION 3. Should a vacancy exist in the Office of the Chairman, the Vice Chairman shall immediately succeed to the Office of the Chairman, and the Office of the Vice Chairman shall thereupon be vacant.

SECTION 4. Should a vacancy exist in the Office of the Vice Chairman, or Councilman, a successor shall be elected at a special election called by the Council within 60 days after the vacancy occurs. Should a vacancy occur within six months, or less, of a regular scheduled election the Council may waive the special election and allow the vacancy to exist until the successor is elected at the regular scheduled election.

ARTICLE VIII – POWERS OF THE COMMUNITY COUNCIL

SECTION 1. The Council shall exercise the following powers subject to any limitations imposed by applicable statutes of the United States and the regulations of the Secretary of the Interior made pursuant thereto.

(a) To represent the Community in negotiations with Federal, State, and local governments and other corporations, associations, partnerships, or individuals and cooperate with the Bureau of Indian Affairs, Department of Public Health, and various departments and agencies of the State of Arizona in matters of welfare, education, recreation, and social services.

AMENDMENT 1

SECTION 1. The membership of the Ak-Chin Indian Community shall be determined as follows:

(a) All persons of Indian blood whose names appear on the official census roll as of January 1, 1940, except those individuals designated with the letters N E (Not Enrolled) and of those individuals who have relinquished membership or have become and roles as members of some other tribe or band.

(b) All children of 1/4th degree Indian blood born after January 1, 1940, to members of the Ak-Chin Indian Community.

(c) Adoption into the Community of any person of Indian blood who does not meet the requirements in this Article shall be accomplished by the majority vote of the qualified voters of the Community, voting at an election called for that purpose by the Community Council or upon presentation of a petition for the meeting signed by one fourth of the qualified voters, members of the Ak-Chin Indian Community. Such adoptions shall be subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior or his authorized representative.

(d) Any person of at least one fourth degree Indian blood may be adopted into the Ak-Chin Indian Community as long as he is legally adopted by a member or members of the Ak-Chin Indian Community. Such adoptions shall be accomplished by the majority vote of the Ak-Chin Indian Community Council, subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior or his authorized representative.

(e) Corrections may be made to the roll any time by the Community Council, subject to the approval of the Secretary of the Interior.

(f) Any person rejected for enrollment as a member of the Ak-Chin Indian Community, except those persons rejected under Subsection (c) of this Section, shall have the right to appeal from that decision to the Secretary of the Interior and the decision of the Secretary is final. All appeals must be filed in accordance with the procedures set out in 25 CFR 42.

(g) The enrollment records shall be kept current by the Community Council who shall remove there from the names of persons who die or relinquished membership in the Community and by adding thereto the names of the persons who qualify for membership.

(h) The Community Council shall have the authority to prescribe rules to be followed in compiling a membership roll, the completed roll to be approved by the Community Council. In the event the roll is used as the basis for distributing tribal assets, it shall be submitted to the Secretary of the Interior for approval.

AMENDMENT II

AMENDMENT II reads as follows:

ARTICLE VIII, Powers of the Community Council, shall be amended by adding thereto a new section, Section 2, Manner of Review.

SECTION 2. Manner of Review. Any ordinance or resolution which, by the terms of these Articles of Association, is subject to review by the Secretary of the Interior shall be presented to the Superintendent of the Pima Agency, whose shall, within 10 days after its receipt, approve or disapprove the same. If the Superintendent shall approve said ordinance or resolution, it shall thereupon become effective, but the Superintendent shall transmit a copy of the same, bearing his endorsement, to the
Sec. of the Interior, who may, within 90 days from the date of receipt by him, rescind the said ordinance or resolution for any cause by notifying the Council of such decision. If the Superintendent shall refuse to approve any ordinance or resolution within 10 days after its receipt, he shall advise the Council of his reasons therefor in writing. If these reasons appear to the Council insufficient, it may, by a majority vote, referrr the ordinance or resolution to the Secretary of the Interior, who may, within 90 days from the date of its receipt by him, approve the same in writing, whereupon the said ordinance or resolution shall become effective.

Amendments I and II were approved October 5, 1966, by the Assistant Secretary of the Interior, Harry R. Anderson, at Washington, DC.
