The newly elected Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and members of the Zuni Tribal Council shall be required to individually take an oath of office at the time of their installation. The Head Cacique will delegate his authority to administer the oath of office to a Zuni religious leader in accordance with the Zuni religious hierarchy.

OATH OF OFFICE

On this day, with authority vested unto me, and with the powers bestowed upon me, I entrust unto you, our lands and our people. As humble as you may be; lack of oratory to express yourself fluently, to the best of your ability, be the protector, for your people against all enemies and strangers. You will cherish and protect all that contains life to your people. You will faithfully execute the duties of your office to the best of your ability. You will refrain from harsh use of words to your people to the best of your ability and be impartial when making judgment in settlements.

This, I give the blessing of our spiritual fathers onto you.

I bestow this oath of office to you, with the breath of our spiritual leaders four times.

History

Article XVI read "All newly elected officers and members of the Zuni Tribal Council shall be required to take an oath of office, as shown below, at the time of their installation. Such oath shall be administered by the Head Cacique of the Pueblo and his aides.

OATH OF OFFICE

"Into your care we entrust our land and our people. Regardless of whether you are poor, or lack the oratory to express yourself fluently, you will, to the best of your ability, be the protector, impartially, for your people. The stranger who comes into our land will become as one of your people, regardless of race, color or creed, and you will give unto them the same protection and rights as you would your own. You will cherish and protect all that contains life; from the lowliest crawling creature to the human. By hasty word or deed you will refrain from hurting the feelings, both mentally and physically, of your people. In times when you, to the best of your ability and judgment, have resorted to every peaceful means of bringing reason to an individual, on a matter, and that individual, through stubbornness, remains contrary to the point of disrespect for the office you hold, and would, through his action, be a bad example to his fellowmen, you will question him four times if he will continue to set aside peaceful intelligent reasoning. If his answer is yes the four times, then you may strike him with the flat of your hand, and four times if necessary."

October 23, 2014 amended to "The newly elected Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and members of the Zuni Tribal Council shall be required to individually take an oath of office at the time of their installation. The Head Cacique will delegate his authority to administer the oath of office to a Zuni religious leader in accordance with the Zuni religious hierarchy.

OATH OF OFFICE

On this day, with authority vested unto me, and with the powers bestowed upon me, I entrust unto you, our lands and our people. As humble as you may be; lack of oratory to express yourself fluently, to the best of your ability, be the protector, for your people against all enemies and strangers. You will cherish and protect all that contains life to your people. You will faithfully execute the duties of your office to the best of your ability. You will refrain from harsh use of words to your people to the best of your ability and be impartial when making judgment in settlements.

This, I give the blessing of our spiritual fathers onto you.

I bestow this oath of office to you, with the breath of our spiritual leaders four times."

The intent of this amendment is to set out an installation process for the newly elected Governor, Lieutenant Governor, and members of the Tribal Council to ensure an orderly transition of tribal government after an election. This is to prevent disruption of tribal government activities and services if the oath of office is not given as required by the Constitution.

Such election shall be held not less than twenty-five (25) or more than forty (40) days from the filing of the petition. No council member or elected officer may be recalled unless at least two-thirds (2/3) of the voters casting ballots vote in favor of the recall, and unless at least thirty percent (30%) of those entitled to vote cast their ballots in the election.

Section 3. With the exception of the governor and the lieutenant governor, any member of the Zuni Tribal Council, who may resign, or may be removed from office, shall be replaced at special election to be called and held by the Zuni Tribal Council in conformity with this constitution and ordinances of the tribal council. In the event the governor resigns, dies, becomes otherwise incapacitated or is removed from office, his unexpired term shall be filled by the lieutenant governor. The head councilman will succeed to the office of the lieutenant governor. An election will be called to replace the head councilman.

Section 4. If a member of the tribal council fails to attend four (4) legally called successive meetings of the tribal council or a committee thereof, of which he is a member, or any combination of tribal council or such committee meetings, he shall automatically cease to be a member of the tribal council. In such

ARTICLE XIX – INHERENT POWERS OF THE ZUNI TRIBE

Section 1. No provision of this constitution shall be construed as a limitation of the inherent residual sovereign powers of the Zuni Tribe. History

Section 1. This constitution may be amended at an election authorized by the tribal council by a majority of all members of the tribal council, or upon receipt of a signed petition with a minimum of thirty percent (30%) of those entitled to vote.

Section 2. If at such election, the amendment is adopted by majority vote of the qualified voters of the tribe voting therein, and if the number of ballots cast represents not less than thirty percent (30%) of those entitled to vote, such amendment shall be submitted to the Governor, Lieutenant Governor and Tribal Council for public posting on the next business day and it shall thereupon take effect.
